Houston's native son Don Swayze—of True Blood and CSI, and brother of the late Patrick Swayze—brings his larger-than-life persona to the big screen in his home city on April 20 with the U.S. premiere of HEATHENS & THIEVES at the 45th-annual WorldFest-Houston International Film Festival.

Along with fellow stars Gwendoline Yeo (Desperate Housewives and the Emmy award-winning Broken Trail) and newcomer Andrew Simpson, Swayze leads a full cast of screen talent in this Old West adventure encompassing elements of both classic western and gritty noir: Drifters, lawmen, and hired guns converge on an isolated ranch, believing its Chinese owners possess stolen gold.
