HEATHENS & THIEVES East Coast Premiere at Stony Brook Film Festival!

After garnering a string of top awards at WorldFest-Houston and Sacramento international film festivals—including Jury Selection for Best Film, Best Actress for Gwendoline Yeo, and Outstanding Dramatic Feature—HEATHENS & THIEVES has been invited to hold its East Coast premiere as an Official Selection at the 2012 Stony Brook Film Festival on July 24 at 9:30 pm.

HEATHENS & THIEVES stars Don Swayze of True Blood and CSI, and brother of the late Patrick Swayze, along with fellow stars Gwendoline Yeo (Desperate Housewives and the Emmy award-winning Broken Trail) and newcomer Andrew Simpson, in this 1871 California tale of guns and greed:

Drifters, lawmen, and hired killers converge on an isolated ranch, believing its Chinese owners possess stolen gold.

The Stony Brook Film Festival takes place in a 1,000-seat theater at the Staller Center For The Arts, part of Stony Brook University, on Long Island, approximately 60 miles east of New York City.
